

placetopay

Transactional platform to manage electronic commerce and card-not-present payments.

Placetopay is a platform that enables companies to sell and charge customers thru online channels from any device, accepting multiple payment methods.

The platform also provides a personalized service experience through the end-to-end e-commerce process offering security modules to prevent fraud and ensure an optimal purchase experience.

QR code payments

Microsites

web checkout

Payment link

main benefits

- Only solution in Puerto Rico that accepts ATH as a payment method.
- A single integration for multiple functionalities such as: recurring payments, send payment links, create microsites, among others.
- Reports available to monitor 100% of your transactions in real time.
- Receive payments online without the need of a website.
- An improved user experience in digital payment processes.
- Transactions monitoring 24/7 to prevent fraud in your purchase process.
- Transactions processed under the highest international security standard, PCI.
- A local support team to accompany you throughout the process

Payment products

Functionalities

Security^(*)

Business Intelligence (BI)

Connection types

» Checkout » API » Plugins

Payment methods

Credit / Debit

(*) Future functionalities